THE OAK

From everywhere we came to this place.

From sun-drenched fields

And shadowed valleys;

From Easy Street,

Towering hills of cities,

And even sands of foaming surf.

Arriving, we mingled for a time

Then went away.

Parting once more.

This is a record of that time;

Some of it was beautiful,

Sometimes the parting was welcomed.

But whatever the season,

This was how it was.

FOUNDED 1787

Office of the President

The college annual, perhaps more than anything else, gathers up the events and activities that occur on the college campus, and preserves them in picture and word for the years ahead.

This edition of The Oak, depicts for us so much that happened during the 1967-1968 academic year at Louisburg College. Included are many highlights, many small moments, many large and many seemingly trivial things. Above all, are pictures of classmates, of friends, of instructors, of counselors and others who have enriched our lives and who will contribute to our growth and development for years to come. Sometimes it has been difficult to live with one another. But these tensions and conflicts will fade away and the happier and richer memories will linger.

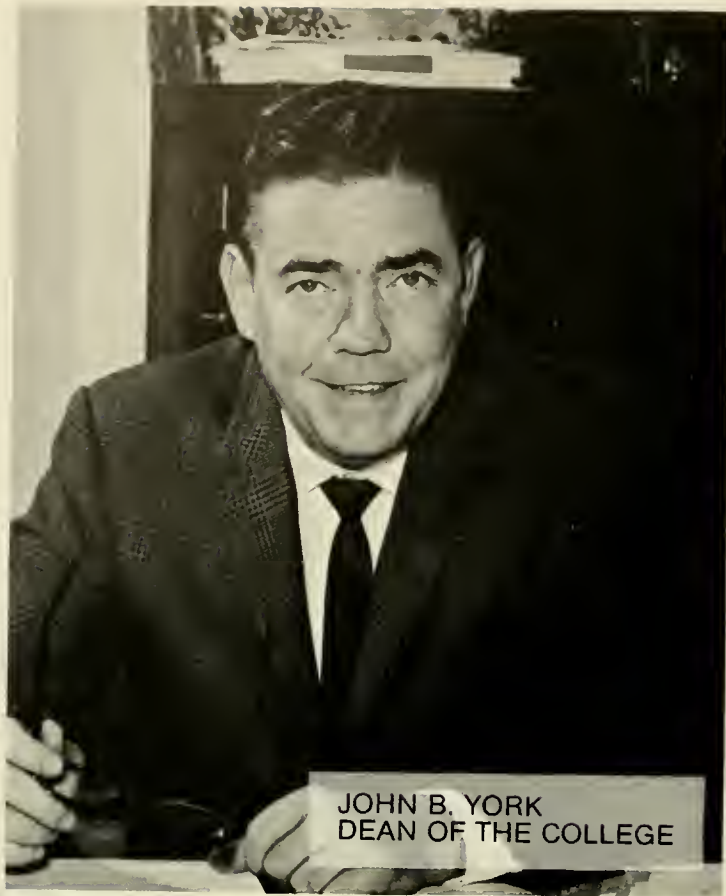

May your copy of The Oak continue to inspire and bless and remind you of a very eventful and fruitful year in your life.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

Standing: Bobby Schwartz, Vice-President; Curt Williams, Treasurer. Seated: Diane Benton, President. Not Pictured: Linda Rhew, Secretary.

We sometimes see
Injurious images of self-destructive
Realism . . .
Brought on by Truth.

Story

It is difficult to describe this film briefly or adequately. It is so extravagant in its wealth of color and design, music and dramatic power, visual splendors and scenic beauties, that all phrases fail. The images are unforgettable, the tenderness almost unbearable as, in the Negro section of modern Rio de Janeiro, high upon the Mount, the picture re-tells in modern terms the beautiful and tragic love story of Orpheus and Eurydice. He is a Brazilian street car conductor, and she is a country girl come to the great city to escape the spectre of a man sworn to kill her because of unrequited love. The marvelous rhythm of sight and sound, of speech and music, the poetry and subtlety of the color photography (particularly during the amazing Carnival scenes) have made this one of the most beautiful motion pictures ever.

*There's an end to every road
Not necessarily the end of the journey.
There comes a time
    When nothing is quite the same
        As even the moment before.
And the old carts and carriages
That carried you so far
    Have to be left for new ones.
And the familiar hills
    Vanish under strange highways.
There are new meadows to cross—
    The others fade out of mind
        Until . . .
Even the cherished smiles
    Once passionately sought
    Are later ignored;
        Tender words long blown away.
This vehicle also . . .
    Has come to The End.
But the road still beckons on,
    Past the waiting hills
        And on . . .*
